Warranty Claims

All warranty claims must be submitted directly to SINOWER and must include the model number, serial number, proof of purchase, date of installation (if available), and a description of the alleged defect.

Within the warranty period, defective parts will be repaired or replaced, including standard labor charges, at SINOWER's discretion. Labor coverage includes standard service labor and reasonable travel time where applicable.

This warranty applies only to the original purchaser and is non-transferable.

What Is Not Covered

Improper installation, misuse, abuse, neglect, unauthorized modification or repair, damage during transit or installation, fire, flood, acts of nature, or normal wear and tear.

Limitation of Liability

SINOWER shall not be responsible for any indirect, incidental, or consequential damages, including loss of business, loss of profits, or product spoilage resulting from equipment failure.

Geographic Limitation

This warranty applies only to equipment sold and used within the United States.
